WHS 2013 Yearbook is Dedicated to

"We love you Milan, you will always be in our hearts."

- Carly Chabot, Lia Serrano, Chau Tran

Milan Moosavizadeh

Milan was a star varsity soccer player in freshman year until he suffered from cardiac arrest during his game. Although Milan is not graduating with us, he has stayed an important part of the Class of 2013.

"Milan has been one of my really good friends since elementary school. We were on the same soccer team from 1st grade through 8th grade. Every game I knew our team had a shot at winning just because we had the best player on the field, Milan. But he was even a better friend than a soccer player. I have so many great memories with Milan." - Mike Barnabei

FROM THE EDITORS

In this book we, the yearbook staff, have worked hard to capture and record the spirit of the 2012-2013 school year. Best of luck in the future, and cherish the memories!

- Rachel Diamond, Editor-in-Chief

Class of 2013: the last four years make up an era you created in Winchester High School history. From the first day of freshman year to graduation, we have had so many valuable memories and experiences in this school. This year, 2013, is the climax of our era, the "Roaring Twenty-Thirties." Now we will become alumni of this school and delve bravely into the rest of our lives. We graduate not only from high school, but from the entirety of our childhoods. We, the senior yearbook staff, hope that this yearbook will keep the memories everyone created alive in the way we all remember them. Our time here might be ending, but we hope you will remember the teachers, coaches, and significant memories you have had with your friends and classmates. Best of luck to the Classes of 2014, 2015, and 2016, and congratulations to the Class of 2013! We hope you create another fantastic era in the next stage of your lives. Good luck!

BATTLE OF THE BANDS

Curtain & Cue presents...

Arsenic and

Old Lace

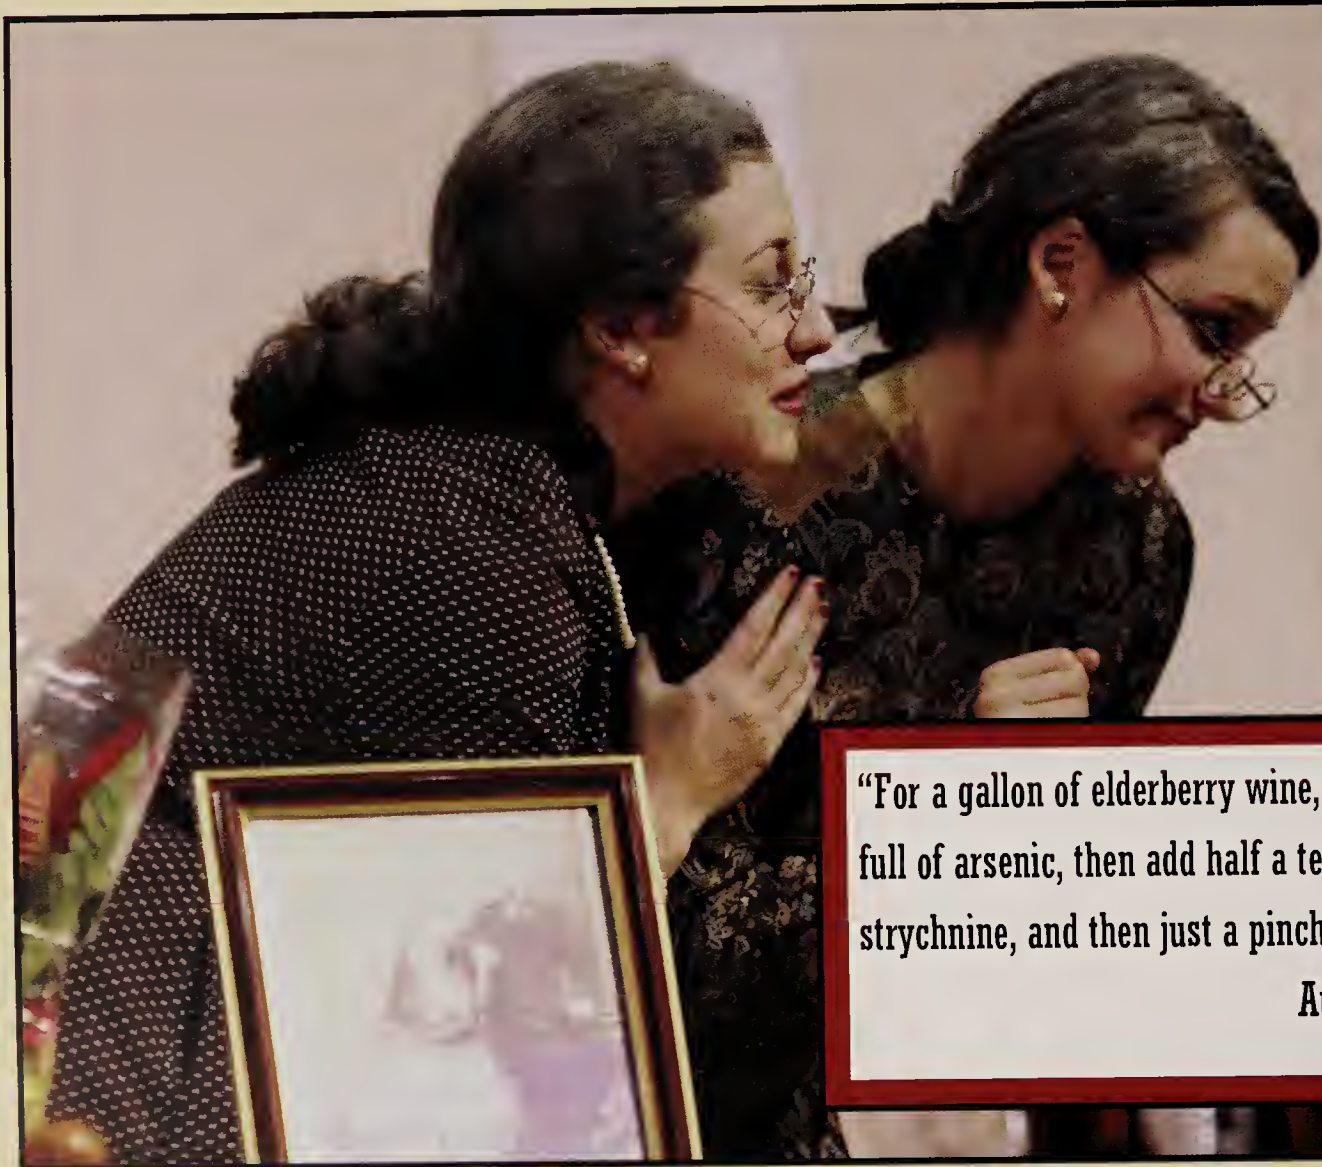

By Joseph Kesselring

Directed by Grace Burchard and Marc Frongillo

"Insanity runs in my family. It practically gallops."

Mortimer Brewster

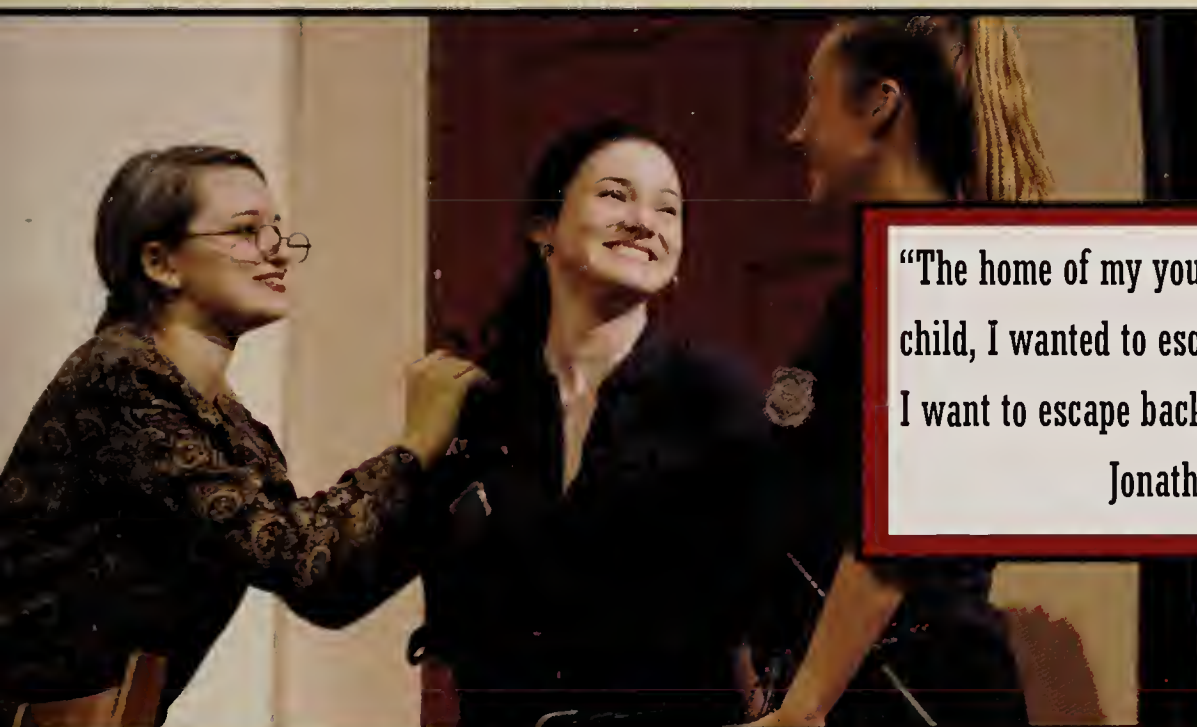

"For a gallon of elderberry wine, I take one teaspoon full of arsenic, then add half a teaspoon full of strychnine, and then just a pinch of cyanide."

Aunt Martha Brewster

The play is a farcical black comedy revolving around Mortimer Brewster (Julien Bundell), a drama critic who must deal with his crazy, homicidal family and local police in Brooklyn, NY, as he debates whether to go through with his recent promise to marry the woman he loves (Scarlett Bittner). His family includes two spinster aunts (Christina O'Neil and Savannah Kinchen) who have taken to murdering lonely old men by poisoning them with a glass of home-made elderberry wine laced with arsenic, strychnine, and "just a pinch" of cyanide; a brother who believes he is Theodore Roosevelt (Marshall Pontrelli) and digs locks for the Panama Canal in the cellar of the Brewster home (which then serve as graves for the aunts' victims); and a murderous brother (Cameron Schmidt) who has received plastic surgery performed by an alcoholic accomplice, Dr. Einstein (Charles Viglas) to conceal his identity and now looks like a horror-film actor.

"The home of my youth... As a child, I wanted to escape it. Now, I want to escape back into it."

Known for her colorful, thrifty boho attire Britta loves shopping at Zara for big sweaters and pretty flowy dresses.

THEY WORE IT BEST

KENZIE KOSS

The class president always keeps it classic with a modern and urban twist. Often seen in her suede wedges Kenzie's favorite stores are Urban Outfitters and Anthropologie.

It is safe to say that Winchester High School doesn't always have the most trendy or fashion forward student body. However a few students in the Class of 2013 managed to make a lasting impression with their own unique senses of style and taste. While their classmates are in sweats, these kids are always looking their absolute best.

MARIO DELEON

Mario sports a classy and sleek sense of style with comfortable dress shirts and ties from Men's Wearhouse.

MACKENZIE O'CONNOR

With a polished style, MacKenzie stays girly and chic. She has found some of her favorite pieces at H&M and thrift stores like her favorite black circle skirt.

RAYVOUGHN MILLINGS

Always with a gold chain, Ray prefers an eclectic, smooth, and inconspicuous style. Often shopping at American Eagle.

Maybe you've heard 'Happy Flannel Friday' over the announcements, or just noticed the curious amount of flannel wearing on Fridays in particular. You have Marshall Pontrelli and his assortment of various flannels to thank for that trend. We hope the tradition of Flannel Friday lives on beyond the Class of 2013.

From what you know now, what advice would you give high schoolers?

"Don't be afraid to try new things, remain open to making friends and be kind. It's always better to try something and fail than wonder 'what if.' One of the first things we learn is how to make friends and it's also one of the hardest things for people to do as they get older. It takes so little to be nice and too much effort to be mean. Nobody will forget the type of person that you were in high school. You could become the nicest person in the world, move a 1000 miles away, or become a millionaire; but people who knew you will always finish with what type of person you were in high school."

If you could go back to high school, would you?

"I would definitely go back to high school because it is such a fun and special time. You get to be with all of your friends everyday and share awesome experiences together like Prom, sports, clubs, and graduation. Some reasons not to go back would be the drama and the homework!"

FACULTY QUOTES

"I would be very upset if I don't get 'the most hilarious teacher' or something because of all the work I've put into [class of 2013]." - Ms. Pickett

What was Winchester like your first year teaching?

"I was the last class to graduate when McCall was the High School. I was very active; I participated in student council. We initiated open campus which is where a student can leave during study hall if they maintain a B average. There was a Brigham's downtown so we could always meet there during open campuses. There were also mini-courses, which meant you could pick and choose what small course you could take (like English Essay Writing for example). There were a lot of options and it was a lot of fun."

- Mike Canavan (on his high school years at Winchester)

"The nineties were the best."

-Ms. Angus

"Back when I started teaching, the kids were a lot less stressed out. There was a lot less pressure put on them. Also, the kids are a lot more kinder and mature than they were when I first started. And there's a lot less PDA!"

-Mr. Skinder (1981)

"I have been teaching for 37 years and I have noticed major changes since then. It is a lot less white country than it was. You would never see different ethnicities in classes; now there is diversity in every classroom. Also, we didn't have the ability to copy materials so teaching could be discouraging at times. The tools are much better today."

-Mr. Maloney (1975)

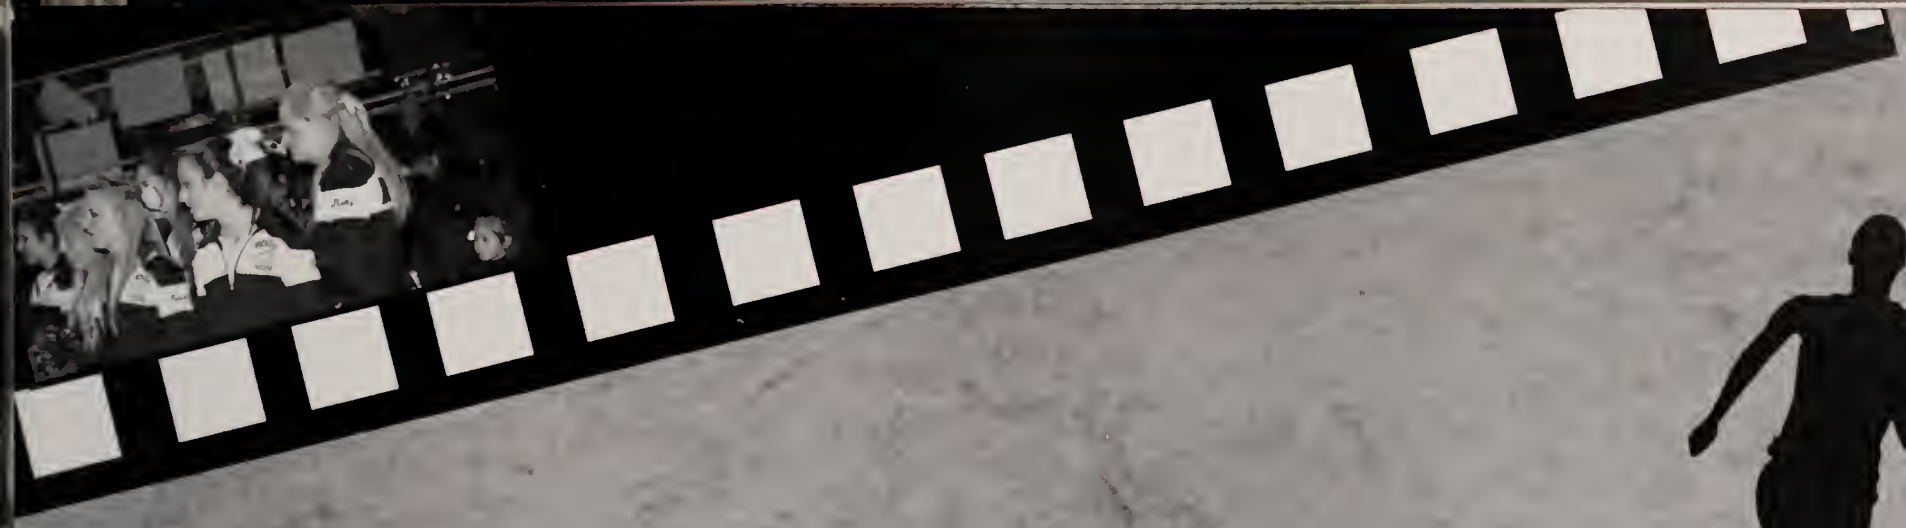

"In 1972 they moved me to the high school. The children are in a specific development stage and it is interesting to work with people who are growing and changing. I have learned how to appreciate kids and come to the realization that this is the last chance to allow kids to have an intellectual life."

-Ms. Hession (1970)

THANK YOU!

Without the dedication of the many yearbook staff members, you would not be holding this yearbook. Members of all four grades contributed hundreds of hours gathering information, taking pictures, carefully designing pages, meeting deadlines, and overcoming obstacles.

A special thanks to Ms. McWilliams, the amazing Faculty adviser who worked diligently to make this book possible. Through frequent after-school meetings, numerous emails, and countless hours she helped us overcome the various challenges that each book section presented.

Susan Happel, our Herff Jones Representative, deserves special recognition for her helpful advice, constant support, and endless enthusiasm.

Thank you to Mrs. Branley, Dr. Gwin, Mr. Chapman, Ms. Mochrie, and the entire administration for working with the club throughout the year.

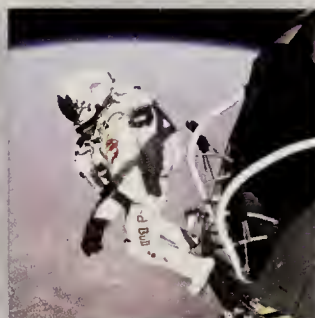

Many thanks to Burlington Studios for the wonderful pictures that we used throughout this book. Also thanks to all of the Winchester students, teachers, parents, and community members who contributed pictures and information.

TWITTER MADE THE SCOPE OF THE WORLD'S OBSESSION WITH THE 16-DAY SPORTING EVENT OBVIOUS.

THE 2012 GAMES SAW 66 OLYMPIC RECORDS AND 30 WORLD RECORDS BROKEN.

MOST DECORATED OLYMPIAN EVER The medal count as Michael Phelps ended his swimming career in London was staggering: 22 in all, including 18 Golds. From London alone, Phelps earned four Golds and a pair of Silvers. The 27-year-old champion officially retired from competitive swimming after the Olympic Games and was vague about his plans for the future. Also in the pool, Colorado's 17-year-old Missy Franklin captivated fans, winning four Golds and a Bronze while setting two new world records. And Ryan Lochte's five new Olympic medals, including two Golds, along with his big personality and good looks, set off a new career on screen — though he already committed to competing in Rio. Ongoing controversy surrounded record-breaking performances by Chinese swimmer Ye Shiwen, 16, who won a pair of IM Golds and smashed world records by delivering times better than either Phelps or Lochte. Proving doubters wrong, Shiwen tested clean for doping.

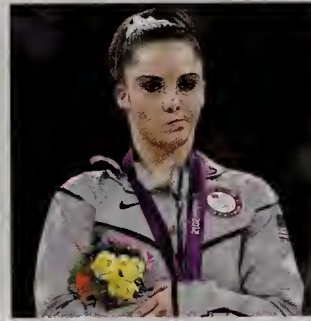

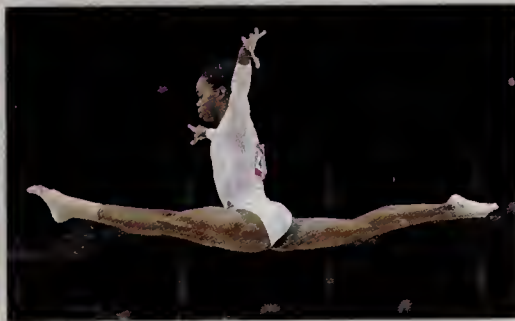

London 2012

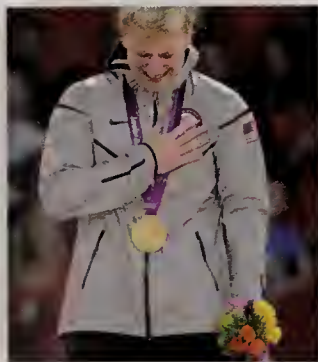

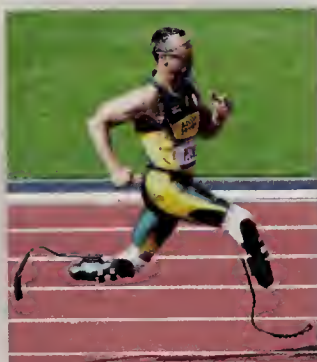

GOLD THRICE Called "the greatest beach volleyball team of all time," Misty May-Treanor and Kerri Walsh Jennings repeated as women's beach volleyball champions in London. In addition to their three Olympic Golds, the duo won three World Championships before May-Treanor retired. RECORD-BREAKING When Carmelita Jeter anchored a world-record effort in the 4x100-meter relay, Team USA won the Gold medal with a scorching time of 40.82 seconds. That mark, the first in history under 41 seconds, broke a record set in 1985.

USA	GOLD 46	SILVER 29	BRONZE 29	TOTAL 104
CHINA	GOLD 38	SILVER 27	BRONZE 23	TOTAL 88
GREAT BRITAIN	GOLD 29	SILVER 17	BRONZE 19	TOTAL 65

"FIERCE 5" The U.S. women won the team gymnastics competition, their first team Gold since 1996, by a whopping five points over second place Russia. Because only two from each team can compete, Jordan Wieber was edged out of the individual all-around finals. There, Gabby Douglas earned the individual all-around Gold, Aly Raisman medalled twice and McKayla Maroney's "not impressed" look after winning the Silver medal in the vault finals became an Internet sensation.

BLADE RUNNER While South African double amputee Oscar Pistorius left London an inspiration to many, his reputation lost its shine (and sponsors pulled their endorsements) just months later when he was charged with the murder of his girlfriend, Reeva Steinkamp.

VICTORY Winning the first U.S. women's Gold in judo was just part of Kayla Harrison's story. Molested by her childhood coach, she returned to the mat after opening up to her mother. Kayla committed herself to training harder than ever while her coach sat in prison.

BADMINTON EXPULSION Eight players from three different Asian teams were controversially excluded from the Games for not trying hard enough to win matches. Officials said their attempts to throw early matches violated the Olympic spirit.

DENIED South Korea's Shin A-lam waited more than an hour for her appeal to be heard before leaving the fencing strip. Britta Heidemann of Germany, who advanced to the Gold medal match but lost, was awarded the winning touch.

MORE GOLD Without dropping a set during the Games, sisters Venus and Serena Williams earned Gold in doubles with victories over the Czech Republic and Russia. In addition, Serena took top singles honors, so she — like her sister — owned five Olympic Gold medals.

VOLCAN DE FUEGO A long-simmering volcano in Guatemala produced its most powerful eruption in nearly 40 years in September, hurling thick clouds of ash miles high, spewing glowing rivers of lava and prompting massive evacuation orders.

POWERFUL TEMBLOR Costa Rica's worst quake in over two decades — a tremor measuring 7.6 that was felt as far away as Nicaragua and Panama — sparked landslides, knocked down buildings, disrupted power and briefly triggered a tsunami warning, but caused just two deaths and relatively few injuries.

HOFSTRA SHOWDOWN After an unexpected less-than-stellar performance by President Obama in the first debate in Denver, the Romney campaign had the advantage of momentum going into the second debate — the only use of the town hall format — on campus in NY. YOUR TURN The vice presidential debate allowed candidates Paul Ryan and Joe Biden to share their views on both foreign and domestic topics. While there seemed to be agreement that the debate didn't affect voter decisions, both sides claimed that their candidate out-performed the opponent.
